

Letters from NHS Lothian sent electronically

NHS Lothian are sending some patient letters electronically. You may receive a text notification from us asking you to log into a secure portal, using a unique PIN and your date of birth so you can see these letters.

Please make sure you do read these letters and take action if needed.

You can access further information on our patient website.

https://services.nhslothian.scot/electronicletters/